

ETHIOPIA CALLS ON MUSSOLINI TO SHOW HIS HAND

MOBILIZATION OF ARMY MAY BE ORDERED

Demand Settlement Of All Differences At League Meet

Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, May 11.—(P)—Ethiopia called upon Benito Mussolini today to show his hand in their months old border quarrel.

Source close to the government said mobilization of the black warriors of Emperor Haile Selassie, "conquering Lion of Judah," would be ordered if settlement of all differences is not assured at the meeting of the league council May 20 or if additional Italian divisions continue to pour into neighboring territory.

The government renewed today its demand that arbitrators of disputed questions be named as provided under a treaty between the two countries.

London reports that France and Great Britain were pressing Italy to hasten arbitration were favorably received here.

Ethiopians scoffed at Italian reports that Emperor Haile Selassie, now on a trip to Harar, had gone to inspect frontier war preparations. It was officially announced he has gone to take radium baths and probably to choose a new governor for the province to replace the former governor, who has been promoted to minister of the interior.

London, May 11.—(P)—Great Britain and France, racing against time, moved today to conciliate Ethiopia and Italy and prevent a possible war.

Britain, well-informed circles said, does not minimize the possibility of widespread complications if the situation is allowed to develop. She is co-operating with Paris in making new representations to Rome and Addis Ababa.

All efforts are being centered on having arbitration machinery functioning before the League of Nations council meets May 20 to hear Ethiopia's appeal. For some time Great Britain has been urging both parties to the quarrel to hurry up and appoint members of a conciliation commission.

BORAH IN FIERY SPEECH DEMANDS BONUS FOR VETS

Barrage Of Oratory For Patman Bill Is Spirited

By Nathan Robertson
Associated Press Staff Writer
Washington, May 11.—(P)—A cry from Senator Borah (R-Ida) for "cheap and abundant money" today set off a weekend barrage of oratory and argument by which friends of the Patman currency-bonus bill hope to force it through the senate over a presidential veto.

Borah stepped into the controversy as Huey Long and Father Charles E. Coughlin, of Detroit, took to the microphone to rally public support for the bill which would pay the veterans with newly-issued currency.

Each side gained a veto today, but the net result was to make the chance for the bill to pass over a veto even slimmer—it takes two votes for every one against to set aside a presidential veto.

With the battle growing ever more spirited, President Roosevelt got away from it all by taking a week-end fishing trip. He was accompanied, however, by house and senate leaders who were expected to consult with him on the drafting of a veto message.

Even with the president away, telegrams continued to deluge the White House urging the chief executive to sign the bill. Telegraph companies estimated they were arriving at the rate of about 250 an hour.

A quick denunciation was promised by leaders of the fight for the bill. They announced they would probably release the measure from the senate Tuesday and let it go to the White House for the president's expected veto.

Headquarters Of IERC Close Up Saturday

Keep Small Number Of Persons To Wind Up Affairs

By Harry L. Thomas.
Associated Press Staff Writer.
Chicago, May 11.—(P)—Because of lack of funds this state relief headquarters is closed.

A flaring banner bearing these words swung in front of the Illinois Emergency Relief Commission's headquarters tonight, mute evidence that the last penny now available for relief had been given out.

At noon today, employees of the commission paraded out, many for the last time. Starting Monday, only 147 of the 1,500 who worked at the central headquarters will have jobs, retained to wind up the affairs of the state's relief organization. The others, fully 30 per cent of whom were taken directly from the relief rolls to handle the work, today were frankly non-plussed. They could not believe their job had evaporated, yet letters of dismissal confirmed it.

Pay for those who volunteered their services since the crisis started May 1 will be forwarded "on or before May 15" according to the letters of dismissal. It was made possible by the lifting of restrictions on federal funds previously reserved for special projects, a lifting which made possible an allotment of $1,200,000 to the 102 counties in the state late yesterday.

For those retained to close up the business of the commission, the same source will provide funds, "scraped from the very bottom of the bin" it was stated at the commission's meeting last night.

In the relief offices throughout the state, a similar picture will be drawn as the last allotment is exhausted. Under the commission's orders, the funds made available yesterday are to be expended only for food and the distribution thereof. How long these funds will last could not be foretold with any degree of accuracy, though auditors estimated that the average throughout the state would be one week. Advances from downstate, however, were more optimistic, with forecasts ranging as far ahead as June 1.

Commenting on the situation, Wilfred S. Reynolds, executive secretary of the commission, said he was not certain as to the next step. He was confident, however, that eventually the deadlock in the state legislature, which has refused to appropriate Illinois' monthly share of the relief load, $3,000,000, would be broken. Federal relief officials were still unchanged in their attitude of refusing to contribute more money for Illinois relief until the legislature has made the state's share available.

"Although there is nothing I can do," Reynolds said, "I am remaining on the job next week since the commission feels this is necessary. Headquarters will be closed to all save those few employees retained to clean up the tag ends of our affairs."

On Tuesday, the legislature is scheduled to take up once more the bitterly-fought sales tax battle, designed by Gov. Henry Horner to make relief cash available. Three times has the roll call on the measure, increasing the tax from 2 to 3 per cent, been halted when it was apparent the two-thirds majority necessary if the money is to be available at once could not be obtained. Accompanying the sales tax increase is a bill appropriating Illinois' share, both passed by the Senate and awaiting only House action and the governor's signature to become law.

Former King of Greece Plans to Return to Throne

Makes Overtures to Queen He Divorced to Return With Him

Bucharest, Rumania, May 11.—(P)—Former King George of Greece, confident of restoration, it was learned from high authority tonight, has made overtures to former Queen Elizabeth, from whom he recently obtained a secret divorce, to return to the throne with him.

To effect this Elizabeth would have to agree to an annulment of the divorce and renounce her present Rumanian citizenship, which was restored to her by a Rumanian court only a few months ago upon her own application.

Elizabeth, it was said, is ready to accept these conditions provided her brother, King Carol, approves.

The possibility of George's restoration became more imminent today.

Shortly after a conference of Balkan pact states here Foreign Minister Demetrius Maximov of Greece, a pronounced monarchist, called upon Sir Reginald Hoare of Great Britain to discuss the question of George's return to the throne, which the British royal family and government are believed anxious to promote.

It also was believed that Elizabeth's mother, the Dowager Queen Marie, now in London, is pulling strings at the British court to have her daughter re-established as queen.

MORE THAN 500 HURT ON FINAL DAY OF JUBILEE

Thousands Jam Roads To See Britain's King, Queen

By Albert W. Wilson
Associated Press Foreign Staff
London, May 11.—(P)—More than 500 persons were injured tonight as King George and Queen Mary made the last of their nightly jubilee appearances on a floodlit balcony of Buckingham Palace before a surging mob of a quarter of a million persons.

Scores of persons were knocked down and many others fainted as the throng pressed against the Palace gates. Ambulance men raced from the steps of Victoria Memorial, picking up fallen men, women and children.

Twelve persons were removed to hospitals while more than 500 were treated at the field ambulance station.

The smiling monarchs remained in view for seven minutes, waving to the cheering crowd, while the crush grew worse every moment, and the casualties grew more numerous.

Half an hour later, the King and Queen appeared again for three minutes in response of persistent demands of the populace. The King, in evening dress wore a black overcoat and bowler hat. The Queen wore an ermine coat.

3,000 Farmers Will Boost AAA In Washington

Advance Agent Declares Agriculturists for Program

By Jerry Greene
Associated Press Staff Writer
Washington, May 11.—(P)—A lean, bronzed Texan who contends most of his fellow producers are satisfied with the agricultural adjustment program, today predicted 3,000 farmers will arrive here Tuesday to give a visible boost to the AAA.

As advance agent for the gathering C. H. Davis described himself as a "320-acre" farmer from Plainview, Tex., who signed AAA contracts for cotton, wheat and corn production control. Then he gave his idea of what the pilgrimage was about.

"We've been hearing back home a lot of noise from a small percentage of farmers who don't like the AAA. We just got a little tired of this and we hadn't said anything. So we decided to do a little talking."

Day said the movement originated in Texas, but that invitations to join the caravan were sent into every major farming state.

"This is a little like other movements," Day said. "It's going to be a lot bigger than we expected. We'll have around 3,000 farmers in here from almost every state west of the Mississippi and from all states in the cotton belt."

"Our only purpose is to express our appreciation to the administration and to congress for what they have done for the farmers, and to assure our support for any sound AAA program they want to adopt."

Secretary Wallace Preaches New Deal in Huey's District

Invades Louisiana, Takes Indirect Slap at Long As Crowd Cheers

Alexandria, La., May 11.—(P)—Secretary of Agriculture Henry A. Wallace today struck a blow for the New Deal agricultural policy in Huey Long's home state of Louisiana, when he preached the virtues of the New Deal in a speech before a cheering crowd.

Wallace came here today from Washington to urge the farmers at a statewide rally attended by thousands to stick by the president in his farm relief policies and to fight for congressional passage of the farm bill.

The cabinet member spoke from the public square to a cheering crowd and denounced in generalities Long and other politicians or "special interests" who have attacked the New Deal which Wallace declared had "placed the farmer on his feet and increased his income."

Wallace did not mention Long by name, either at noon-day luncheon preceding the speaking or in his afternoon address. But he warned the people against appeals made by "some who profess to speak in the name of the common people."

"There are plenty of persons," he said, "who can stir up trouble."

Warnings of Idle Talk
"There are some who profess to speak in the name of the common people and attempt to draw a red herring across the trail. It is extremely important that the farmer be not misled. It's easy to say 'don't you think you ought to get more money—that you ought to get 30 cents for your cotton' and so forth, but where are you going to get it?"

Three hundred luncheon participants roundly applauded Louisiana representatives in congress who indelicately slapped at Long's political anti-administration moves as they were assembled in the luncheon for Wallace.

The secretary told the meeting that "as long as they (farmers) stand firm with the president we need have no cause to fear the future."

Find Shortage In Clerk's Accounts

East Alton, Ill., May 11.—(P)—A shortage of approximately $6,000 in the accounts of Village Clerk Charles W. Rayburn who committed suicide here April 3, was revealed today by Charles A. Vannprester, president of the village board.

Vannprester said the shortages mainly were in water receipts, but the investigation by a St. Louis accounting firm also had disclosed that Rayburn had received money for purchases of more than thirty state automobile licenses from applicants, but never had procured them.

Rayburn, a World War veteran, and serving his second term as village clerk, was found dead from carbon monoxide poisoning while seated in his automobile in the garage at his home. A hose, attached to the exhaust pipe, led into the motor car.

The village clerk was under an $8,000 surety company bond, Vannprester said.

REPUBLICANS IN RESISTANT MOOD ON LEGISLATION

Demand Three - Fifths Reduction In Five Point Program

By D. Harold Oliver
Associated Press Staff Writer
Washington, May 11.—(P)—A sharp republican demand that the Roosevelt five-point legislative program be reduced by three-fifths in order to allow congress to adjourn by July 1 today met an uncompromising negative by administration leaders.

Senator McNary of Oregon, the minority chief, predicting abundant controversy over the quintet of measures laid down by President Roosevelt for action before adjournment, said the legislature should act on NRA extension, social security and appropriations bills and go home.

This would mean the scrapping of the public utility holding company abolition bill, the omnibus banking measure and expansion of transportation regulation. The republican leader contends all three might well go over until next winter's session.

Democrats at yesterday's party conference took no action to shave the program. McNary expressed keen disappointment at this today.

May Stay Until August
"There must be a diminution in the program if we are to quit June 15 or July 1 at the latest. But if we are compelled to go through with the entire program I fear we will be here until far into August."

Meanwhile, President Roosevelt is letting congress fuss and fume.

Although conferring with his political and legislative chiefs during a weekend fishing trip, Mr. Roosevelt's next direct contact with the Capitol is expected next week when the senate releases the Patman bonus bill for his action which is virtually certain to be a veto.

Leaders on both sides of the fight appeared agreed today that there were not enough votes in the senate to overturn executive disapproval. Talk increased that the Vinson plan might be brought forward, advocates of this proposal contending it is five or six votes stronger than the inflationary Patman measures.

Meanwhile, democratic leaders surveyed next week's program with a degree of hopelessness as far as making any appreciable dent in the major bill column was concerned.

Centralia Will Attempt Leasing Of Gas Plants

Conference of City Officials and Power Men Will Be Held Today

Centralia, Ill., May 11.—(P)—A tense air of expectancy hung over this strike-troubled community tonight as officials launched a new plan to end labor difficulties that have cut off the city's gas supply since April 3.

Aroused by the dynamiting of a pipe line near here last night that cut off gas service to Metropolis, Mayor Louis Peiser announced the city would attempt to lease both the gas and electric distribution systems of the Illinois Power and Light company here. A conference of city officials and power company representatives will be held tomorrow to discuss the proposal.

Mayor Peiser said striking employees of the company had tentatively agreed to return to work if the plant were leased and operated by the city.

"The plan also has to be approved by the State Commerce commission and the International Officers of the labor union," the mayor said, "but we are hopeful of getting all difficulties ironed out and resume gas service the first of the week." He said early negotiations indicated the power company would agree to lease its facilities to and further disturbance.

Mayor Peiser absolved local striking workmen of blame in the dynamiting last night.

"The men here are not that sort," he said. "They have shown all along a willingness to cooperate in attempts to restore service."

VETS START CHAIN ASKING ROOSEVELT TO SIGN BONUS BILL

Brookfield, Mo., May 11.—(P)—The following unique telegram was sent to President Roosevelt Wednesday night: "Hon. Franklin D. Roosevelt, the White House, Washington, D. C. 'Faith, Hope, Charity—In God we trust. The chain was started in the hope of bringing prosperity to you and our country. Within three days please read this message and add your name to the Patman bonus bill. In turn you should receive several million extra votes."

"Now, is this worth that much to you?"

"Have the faith in us you had in 1917 and we will not be broke."

ROOSEVELT AND HIS ADVISERS IN CONFERENCE

Quincy Citizens Providing Food For Unemployed

Quincy, Ill., May 11.—(P)—Leaders of voluntary relief measures today reported an excellent response by private citizens in caring for Quincy's 12,000 unemployed facing privation because of the curtailment of state and federal funds. Food obtained by school children was hauled to the central emergency depot and was distributed today to lone queues of the destitute.

NEW BUREAU IS CREATED TODAY BY PRESIDENT

Authorized To Do An Electric Power Business

Washington, May 11.—(P)—Authorized to do an electric power business—so broad as to appear unlimited at first study—today was vested by President Roosevelt in a "rural electrification administration" he created under the $4,000,000,000 work-relief program.

The executive order over Mr. Roosevelt's signature generally was interpreted as opening a new field of direct federal activities in power. Observers saw only one immediate check on this development—the amount of cash available.

In so many words, Mr. Roosevelt directed the new electrification administration "to initiate, formulate, administer and supervise a program of approved projects with respect to the generation, transmission and distribution of electric energy in rural areas."

Under one interpretation, the new unit, "REA," was believed able to build or acquire lines to power plants of the Tennessee Valley authority, thus short-circuiting a federal court injunction against sales of TVA power.

Supplementing and bolstering the sweeping grant for generation, transmission and distribution "was authority in the executive order for REA to acquire, by purchase or by the power of eminent domain, any real property or any interest therein," in addition selling or leasing property.

Whether this language foretold the actual purchase or condemnation of existing power plants, transmission lines and distribution systems could not be learned from officials. Morris L. Cooke, already acting as head of REA though not formally appointed, was out of the city today.

Details of how a farmer might be expected to benefit from the program were almost entirely lacking. One official said most of the projects under the plan probably would result from organization of mutual companies by farmers, but for further amplification they referred to a radio speech to be delivered by Cooke next Saturday between 12:30 and 1:30 P. M. eastern standard time.

To carry out the broad purposes named in the president's executive order, REA already has been tentatively allotted $50,000,000 half the sum suggested by congress in the works law. Under the president's flexible powers to transfer funds, a potential $900,000,000 could conceivably be devoted to rural electrification.

Protest Government By Remote Control; Mun League to Act

Prepare Bill to Submit to Legislature Granting Cities Home Rule

Springfield, Ill., May 11.—(P)—Protesting against "government by remote control," the Illinois Municipal League today launched a state-wide drive to grant "home rule" to cities and villages.

John W. Kapp, Jr., Mayor of Springfield and president of the league, announced a bill to give municipalities the right to manage their own affairs and solve their own problems has been drafted for introduction in the legislature.

A home rule bill authorizing Chicago to control utilities has already been passed by the senate.

The Municipal League wants cities and villages to have exclusive power to adopt ordinances and regulations for any steps in the interest of self-government.

"If the principal of home rule is to be recognized as to the burdens, financial and otherwise, it should also be recognized as to the benefits thereof for the local communities," Kapp declared.

"If the bill is passed, state administrative authorities will no longer exercise political power or control over local municipal affairs within the corporate limits of the communities which adopt the act."

"The ultimate decision as to what is best for each community will rest with the people of the community concerned or their duly elected municipal corporate authorities. State administrative bodies will be free to act in an advisory or service capacity only."

Passage of the bill would improve local government by restoring to the affairs of local government, Kapp declared.

400 NAVAL PLANES JOIN IN "ATTACK" DURING PRACTICES

Honolulu, May 11.—(P)—A mass air "attack" on the island of Oahu, participated in by more than 400 naval airplanes, with army planes and anti-aircraft units in defense, may be a spectacular feature of naval maneuvers now in progress in the Pacific, it was learned here today.

Unofficially it was said the flight was being planned as a part of the fleet war game, as he "enemy" fleet, having theoretically overpowered defenders of Midway Island, 1,325 miles west, makes a spearhead advance toward the important Pearl Harbor naval base here.

MANY SUBJECTS ARE DISCUSSED BY OFFICIALS

Chieftains Talk High In Blue Ridge Mountains

By Francis M. Stephenson
Associated Press Staff Writer
Hancock, Md., May 11.—(P)—Miles removed from turbulent Washington agitation over the cash bonus and administration legislative program, President Roosevelt and congressional chieftains talked tonight around a blazing wood fire high in the Blue Ridge Mountains.

After an afternoon of fishing, they assembled in the Woodmont Rod and Gun club for a chat, which had no fixed subject matter but was considered sure to canvass current issues foremost in Capitol minds.

Grouped about Mr. Roosevelt were his ace advisors on legislative affairs—Vice president Garner, Speaker Byrns, Senator Robinson, the democratic leader, and Senator Harrison, chairman of the finance committee. Also in the circle was Postmaster General Farley, the democratic national chairman.

The president was known to be prepared to veto the Patman currency-expansion bonus bill. And despite lack of official confirmation, speculation continued over possibilities of a bonus compromise which might be acceptable if congress—as administration leaders forecast—upholds the veto.

The president planned to motor back to the White House tomorrow afternoon. Aside from congressional leaders, others in his party included: Rear Admiral Cary T. Grayson, head of the American Red Cross; the presidential secretaries, Marvin H. McIntyre and Stephen T. Early; Col. E. M. Watson, military aide; and Commander Ross T. McIntire, White House physician.

Those who expected rain on May expectations, but they were disappointed just the same.

going to get their corn planted?
Guess they'll have to make the pilgrimage while it rains.

cent visitor to Washington who hasn't

Jailing a Duke

The Duke of Manchester was sentenced in an English court to spend nine months in jail because he was convicted of pawing jewels belonging to his mother's estate. When the sentence was pronounced, the Duke nodded to the Judge, picked up his overcoat, and walked downstairs to a cell. British justice had spoken, and even a peer had no recourse but to comply with the decree.

The incident gives a good idea of the English attitude toward the titled gentry. Before the law they are no better than the humblest citizens.
One can hardly imagine an American millionaire taking a sentence so calmly. The Duke of course admitted he had been bankrupt twice and was always having financial troubles,
which may explain why he knew there
was no use to resist.

But the English have no respect
for title when justice is to be done.
The people cheerfully support a huge titled class and give the dukes and lords their highest respect. But they also support a court system that is designed to keep the British Empire
from running amuck on the reefs
of wrongdoing.

Shifted Responsibility

The present relief crisis in Illinois
is serious, and at first thought there seems to be no possible good that can come from it. Every effort should be made to prevent actual suffering or hunger. This state cannot afford to let anybody go hungry anywhere
within its borders.

But the closing of the relief projects
shifts responsibility for employment
from the government to private business. It should be the desire of the people who can give employment to use every effort to put people back to work. Perhaps some of the slack
can be taken up by private industry
and business.

Agriculture should also do its share.
Farmers have received government
benefits and are today getting good prices for their projects. Spring work is beginning, and there should be plenty of places on farms for those who want them. Those who have work of any kind that needs doing and can afford to have it done should do it at this time. Those who have been thrown on their own responsibility by the suspension of relief should find employers in a more receptive mood
and should seek work diligently.

War Clouds Gather

All signs point to a real scrap between Mussolini and the Ethiopian descendant of King Solomon. Apparently both sides are awaiting an excuse to start the rumpus. Meanwhile England assumes an alarmed attitude now that the fight is about to start and seeks a way to patch

up the quarrel.

Had England and France been so minded they might have stopped the dispute before Italy sent her soldiers into Africa. It is generally believed Mussolini was allowed to go ahead with the Ethiopian venture that he might not pay too much attention to what is happening in Austria, where rearming is in progress.

England is said to hold the whip
hand over Italy, but the whip has not been cracked, or if it has Mussolini did not hear it. The world hopes
there won't be any fight, but ringside
seats are attractive to all the powers.

Illinois Senators Divided

(From The Bloomingtown Pantograph)
In the senate vote on the passage of the Patman bill for payment of the veterans' bonus, the two senators
from the state of Illinois took opposite sides.

Senator James Hamilton Lewis
voted for the bill; Senator William H. Dieterich voted against it.
Both senators are Democrats, and both have consistently followed the lead of President Roosevelt in major policies. It is supposed that the President is against the Patman bill,
and when it comes to him that he will veto it.

It may perhaps explain the parting
of company by the Illinois Senators to say that Senator Lewis will be a candidate for re-election in 1936, but that Senator Dieterich will not have to come up before his constituents at that time. The senator coming up for re-election is naturally more chary
about possible opposition of the "soldier vote" in this matter.

It will be interesting to watch the course of the two Illinois senators in case the Patman bill is vetoed by the President and the question then arises in the senate whether to sus-tain or to override the veto. Senator Dieterich can stand with the President on such a vote and be consistent with his former vote. If Senator Lewis stands with the President, and votes to sustain a veto, he must turn his back on his former stand. With the powerful lobby that will be watching the vote on the veto, it is not likely that Senator Lewis will antagonize the element which he favored in the first instance.

There was a contingent of senators who are coming up for re-election in 1936 who nevertheless voted against the Patman bill. Senator Lewis was not one of these. Arthur Krock, the veteran Washington news writer,
gives the anti-Patman group of senators credit for deserving "honorable mention." There were four Democrats and seven Republicans in this

Terror of Money

Relief work in the depression has brought many strange human interest stories to light, but none of them, surely, is any stranger than the one about the jobless man at Springfield, Mo., who found $6000 in cash and never dared spend it.
This man, as you may recall, was on relief all winter, with a family of seven children. In an abandoned cellar on his farm he found a dusty fruit jar, containing $6000 in gold notes.
Instead of ending his troubles, the find increased them. He had heard that gold notes were no longer legal tender. He feared that, if he tried to spend the money, he would get into trouble.
So, finally, he re-hid the money
and stayed on relief, eking out a bare existence—and tortured always by the knowledge that riches were right under his hand, if he only dared use them.
It came out all right, at last. He consulted his landlord, the two went to a lawyer for advice, decided to split the money evenly—and everything is lovely now. But imagine the mental strain which that man had
to suffer all winter long!

Students at Work

The young man who works his way through college is apt to be a much better student than the one whose parents pay his way. This is the conclusion to be drawn from a survey just completed at the University of Southern California by Dr.
Frank C. Touton, the university's vice president.

The survey compared the scholastic records of students participating in the federal government's program of part-time jobs for college undergraduates with those whose expenses were being met by their parents, and it found that the former group ranked higher in classroom marks, displayed
a greater earnestness of purpose and,
in general, seemed to be getting more
out of college life.

This isn't hard to understand. The lad whose college expenses are paid
for him can easily fall into the notion that college is just a pleasant and diverting lark. The one who is earning his way by the sweat of his brow knows what he is in college for,
and does his best to make it worth
the effort it is costing him.

Behind The Scenes In Washington

Work-Relief Chieftains Face
Messy Job . . . With Walker's Task Toughest of All
... Couzens' Inquiry Stirs
Up CWA Scandals Again
... Norris Scores One on Power Trust.

By RODNEY DUTCHER
Washington—For a bunch of fellows
who have six or seven billion dollars
to spend, the numerous bosses of the huge work-relief program are a surprisingly worried lot.

Most of them are still foggy about it all. They're sparring with a pack of problems which could be reeled off
here for half a column if anyone
wanted to be lugubrious about it.
(This is too nice a day.) The problems
revolve themselves into the question:
"Will it work—and how?"

Insiders suspect that current administration intentions of putting 4-5,000,000 folks to work by August are over-optimistic as General Johnson's belief that NRA would re-employ 6-8,000,000 almost immediately, and Administrator James Moffett's suggestion that the Federal Housing Act meant jobs for 5,000,000.

The only way it can be done is by CWA methods, which means primarily an effort to put relief recipients on payrolls rather than at work.
Probably that the tremendous job
will be messy in its application, however, doesn't mean that money won't be spent in huge gobs or that Roosevelt's hope of some real stimulation for private business won't be realized.
Even though some administrators lose their minds—or reputations—in the process.

Ghastly Job for Walker

Everybody hopes that other of the program's phases will work out better than the effort to make Frank Walker
a "fall guy" who would keep a pork-
hungry nation off the necks of officials busy with actual operation of the scheme.

The idea was that Walker, whose devotion to Roosevelt leads him to accept jobs of a thankless and horrible
nature, would, as head of the division
of applications and information, receive all project requests and handle
the horde of congressmen, governors,
mayors and other lobbyists.

Although Walker was to refer the projects to the approximately 60 federal agencies, divisions and sections
destined to do the actual spending,
that mob would be kept from interfering with Hopkins, Ickes, Tugwell, and the many other busy bosses of the actual work-relief job.

Already, just between us girls,
the plan has bogged down. The lobbyists saw through the plan at once. They don't mind leaving their formal applications with Walker, but the same afternoon
they're around at the backdoor—
high-pressureing the agency which would actually superintend the project.

Walker's chief job will be to straighten out snarls and co-ordinate.
And what a job that one is going to be!

X-Ray on CWA Mess

You can expect some sensations out of Senator Jim Couzens' investigation
of relief expenditures.

For one thing, they probably will shed more light on the CWA scandals. As CWA drew to a close,
you may recall, able Administrator
Harry Hopkins was throwing up his hands in despair at evidences
of politics and graft.

Later, however, the FERA publicity
staff got busy muzzling the story that there had been amazingly little of either.

But Couzens has quietly called on FERA for the reports of last year's investigations by PWA Chief Investigator Louis Glavis and his sleuths. There are cases of padded payrolls and other shenanigans which have never been prosecuted and Couzens wants to know why.

Norris Scores on Trust

Senator George Norris of Nebraska
slipped a resolution through the Senate the other day when no one was looking.

But his old foes, the "power trust"
lobbyists, are now looking at it—
hard.

The Federal Power Commission is asked to check on every municipal and federal power plant in the country to learn the nature and cost of litigation
brought against them by private power interests.

Norris expects to show that hardly a public power plant has ever been built except in the face of expense and delay. Sometimes the litigation has taken years and frequently small towns have been unable to stand the expense.

Norris points out that suits by private interests are now costing TVA millions of dollars and he hopes to get through some legislation against "government by injunction."

Revival Closes

The special services which have been in progress in the Christian church for the past two and a half weeks conducted by Mr. and Mrs.
Leland Channess of New Providence,
La., closed Thursday night with two additions to the Christian church and possibly additions to other churches in the city. Mr. Channess has preached some outstanding sermons
during his engagement here and has drawn his audiences from all denominations in the city. He held a very successful meeting in Roodhouse prior to coming to White Hall and plans are under way to have him return to Hill-
view to conduct a meeting in June.

Dr. Clyde Lyons, president of Eureka College, will preach a Mother's day
sermon in the Christian church Sunday morning and in the evening he will speak on college life.

Rev. Jesse R. Hastings of Springfield will preach in the First Baptist church next Sunday morning and evening.

There will be a Mother's day service
at the Methodist church Sunday morning with the pastor, Rev. A. E.
Linfield, in the pulpit. All the churches will provide special music.

Mrs. M. C. Reamer and Mrs. A. O.
Vosseller are probably the oldest mothers in White Hall since the death of Mrs. E. V. Duncan a few weeks ago.
Mrs. Duncan was 97 years old. Mrs.
Reamer was 87 last August 21, and Mrs. Vosseller was 87 on December 10.

Franklin Board to Close R.R. Crossing

The village board of Franklin at its first meeting this week voted to close the West street crossing of the Burlington. In return for right-of-way for Route 104 needed adjoining the Franklin cemetery, the railroad requested the closing of either the West street or the Wyatt avenue crossing.
With this action of the village board
it is hoped the way has been cleared for construction of the remainder of Route 104 linking Jacksonville and Waverly.

With the West street crossing closed, whatever pavement is built into Franklin from the main route will come up Wyatt avenue. There are several business firms on this street that have been interested in having the slab pass their establishments.
County highway authorities are now practically certain the gap in the route will be completed this summer.
This will mean the opening of one of the most important roads in the county and the completion of the county's quota of bond issue road
mileage.

City Election Checks are ready at City Clerk's office.

WILL ROGERS SAYS:

To the Editors of The Journal-Courier:
Beverly Hills, Calif., May 11—Yesterday as I went to press we couldn't find the Midway islands, today as I go to print we can't find the islands or the 46 aeroplanes either. Maybe the Japanese hid the islands on 'em.
Correction note: Frank Hawkes says
I beat him out of nine hours, his flight from Buenos Aires to Los Angeles was 28 hours, and not 48. He says Brazil has the best air force in South America, says England and France have peddled a lot of old planes to a lot of those countries, but the U. S. is the only one sells 'em the latest model ones. Their own army

Pearl Ferry Stops Operating Because Of Flooded Landing

Illinois River Above 15-foot Stage and Crest of 20 is Probable

White Hall—The ferry at Pearl stopped running at six o'clock Wednesday evening because the Illinois had reached a stage where it was not possible to land on the Pearl side of the river. The river stage Thursday evening was 15.5 feet and was expected to reach twenty feet before the crest.

A launch boat belonging to Theodore Scott broke loose during the storm Wednesday night at Pearl and drifted about five miles down the river before it was discovered Thursday morning by Elmer Hess and his brother who caught the boat and tied it up for its owner.

Apple Creek east of White Hall was out of bounds Thursday and people residing at Athensville were unable to cross the creek to attend the funeral of a former resident of that village, Mrs. William P. Rigg, who died at Roxana and was brought to the Richwoods church and cemetery for funeral services and burial.

The total rainfall for the first eight days in May was 3.24 inches of rain, with precipitation every day except one, according to the records kept by Glen Vandever, co-operative weather observer for White Hall. There was 33 inches of rain during Wednesday night accompanied by some hail. The electrical storm during the evening and night was severe though no damage from lightning was reported.

Persons wishing to cross the Illinois river from this vicinity had to drive to Carrollton and then to Kampsville to cross on the ferry. Rev. J. O. Raines who is holding a revival meeting at Strout west of Pearl had to go to Kampsville Thursday morning to come here to conduct the funeral services of Mrs. Rigg at Richwoods east of Roodhouse, a detour of more than twenty miles.

Rigg Funeral, Thursday
Hettie Ann Rigg died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. H. Strahan in Roxana, May 7, aged 88 years 9 months and 26 days. Funeral services were held at Richwoods Baptist church east of Roodhouse, Thursday afternoon, conducted by Elder J. O. Raines of White Hall and interment was made in the Richwoods cemetery.

Hettie Ann, daughter of Nicholas Money and Martha Jones Tunnell was born in Illinois July 9, 1846. Her entire life except three years in Iowa and two years in Indiana, was spent in Illinois in Morgan, Greene and Macoupin counties.

On November 15, 1866 she was united in marriage to William Perry Rigg. Their whole married life was spent in Athensville township, Greene county, a period of almost sixty years. To them were born four sons and four daughters, five of whom survive. They are Edwin of Granite City; W. Alonzo of Girard; Luella of Girard; Emma of Lebanon, and Edith of Roxana. There are twenty grandchildren, twenty-eight great grandchildren, and one great great grandchild. At the age of eleven years she was converted and later united with the Baptist church in Athensville, where she remained a member until her death.

IN STANDARD'S RESEARCH LABORATORIES

... where engineers work, plan, test, develop ... TO SAVE YOU MONEY

The very excellence of today's Standard Oil products is a constant challenge to Standard's great staff of research engineers and chemists. Their work is never done. Their only assignment is to drive incessantly toward something still better—to discover how each product can be made to do a more-and-more efficient job at less-and-less cost to you.

A large group of these engineers, assigned to manufacturing, are also constantly at work formulating new refining methods—developing equipment which can take the "spoonful" lots of improved products that come from the laboratories and amplify them—produce them in quantities sufficient for the demands of Standard's great mid-west market.

Out of the ceaseless work of these specialists has come advance after advance—in gasoline unmatched in abundance of usable Live Power—in motor oil without peer in giving clean, long-lived lubrication. The truth is that Standard Oil has been a pioneer in virtually every major development in gasoline and motor oil.

That record of advancement is more than a matter of pride to Standard Oil men. It is your guide to VALUE. The familiar sign of "Standard" marks the place where you can get full value for your money—and something more.

Several Hundred Girls Lend Grace to May Day Festival at MacMurray

The May Day festival was celebrated Saturday afternoon on the campus at MacMurray College, when Miss Helen Wright was crowned "Queen of the May." The scenes of pagantry, from "The Blue Beckons", delighted the large group of spectators assembled on the athletic field. The numerous dances in bright colors made a particularly brilliant May Day scene, with the back-ground of giant books—"MacMurray Land."

The merry-making began with the colorful May Pole dance, following this graceful and gay frolic, games were played, stunts and tumbling acts were performed with grace and skill.

Helen Wright is Queen

At the trumpet call the throng of players approached, and the herald "Elsie Ream" proclaimed to the multitude the approach of the King (Erma Emig) and the Queen, (Helen Wright) and the royal court. Dancers and heralds escorted the royal pair to the throne, where the queen received her crown from the hands of the former queen (Miss Willis Stevenson), amidst royal pomp and splendor.

As the queen viewed the dances from her flower bedecked throne, she was surrounded by her court and maids. Jane Adams, maid of honor, Mildred Fulkerson, Margery Mayhew, Eleanor Warner, Dixie Lea Watkins, Margaret G. Cleary, Rosalind Boland.

My Cookery News Notes

By LUCILE HARRIS

Editor's Note: "Cookery News Notes" is a new feature of this newspaper, and will be followed with interest by our women readers. The writer is Lucile Harris, staff member of the National Live Stock and Meat Board, recognized authority on cookery of all kinds and especially meat cookery and the planning of meals around the meat course. Experimental cookery has developed a good deal of new information about cooking meat, which is contrary to old ideas. This series of articles will give our readers this new information in helpful form, and will also give a series of excellent recipes and suggestions for serving the meat course of the meal.

OVEN MEALS

FOR THE BUSY DAY

It's a cookery news note worth while, to save an hour on a busy day. So I'm giving you some suggestions for oven meals. To be served on laundry day of cleaning day. Such meals require little watching and it has been shown that very little more fuel is needed to cook an oven full of food than to cook just one pan of food.

You will have to plan a bit, to be sure, for the foods you select should cook together in the oven in the same length of time and at about the same temperature. Another thing to watch is that they harmonize in flavor, color, and texture and are balanced in nutritional value.

Here are two of my favorite oven dinners. You probably have your pet meals that can be cooked in the oven together in a friendly fashion, with none complaining that the temperature is all wrong or that the time is too long.

Suggestions for Oven Meals.

Sausage Meat Loaf
Baked Potatoes Baked Onions
Heated Rolls
Grapefruit and Celery Salad
Apricot Bread Pudding

Roast Leg of Lamb
Brown Gravy
Baked Sweet Potatoes Buttered Beets
Orange and Onion Salad
Gingerbread

Short Ribs of Beef en Casserole
Baked Squash Celery
Hot Rolls Butter
Apple Brown Betty.

All of these meals are planned around the meat course. The meat loaf requires about one and a half hours in a moderate oven, which is one heated to between 325 and 350 degrees F. The potatoes and onions will be cooked in about the same length of time and the bread pudding might be put into the oven the last hour for it will be done in a shorter time.

Use Slow Oven.

The second meal will take quite a bit longer, for the leg of lamb should be cooked at a lower temperature than the meat loaf. This past year has brought some new developments in the cooking of roasts. The one which will need consideration here is the fact that there is so much less shrinkage and such an improved taste when meats are cooked slowly for a long time that we are suggesting to housewives that these changes will be appreciated by their families.

The best temperature for roasting a leg of lamb is 300 degrees F. The meat is put into the oven which has been preheated to that temperature and cooked at that constant temperature allowing about 30 to 35 minutes for every pound. The sweet potatoes will cook in about 2 hours at that temperature and the gingerbread will have to be baked the last half hour at a higher temperature.

Sausage Meat Loaf.

1 1/2 pounds sausage.
1 cup milk.
1 1/2 cups crumbs
1 tablespoon finely chopped onion
2 tablespoons catsup.
2 tablespoons horseradish
1/4 teaspoon prepared mustard
1 egg.

Mix in order listed. Place in a loaf pan and bake in moderate oven one and one-half hours. Serve with tomato sauce.

Roast Leg of Lamb.

Wipe meat with a damp cloth and rub thoroughly with salt and pepper and a cut clove of garlic, if desired. Place on a rack in a dripping pan. Do not add any water and do not cover the roast. Set in a slow oven (300 degrees F.) and cook until done, allowing about 35 minutes to the pound.

Short Ribs of Beef en Casserole.
3 pounds short ribs
6 small onions, chopped
1 carrot
4 tablespoons lard
1/2 cup rice
2 cups canned tomatoes
1 teaspoon sugar
Salt and pepper.

See the new style Studio sofa, built as sturdy as a day-enport, soft as the finest inner-spring mattress for sleeping.—GUSTINE'S.

Melt lard in frying-pan, add onions and meat and brown well. Put in a casserole. Mix tomatoes, rice, sliced carrots, and sugar and pour over the beef. Add enough hot water to cover all ingredients. Cover and cook in a slow oven (300 degrees F.) for about three hours.

Ashland Community Hit Hard by Wind: Farm Damage Heavy

Skylights at High School Broken Wednesday by Loosened Tiling

Ashland — Ashland streets were blocked, electric light and telephone wires were down as a result of Wednesday night's storm. Skylights were broken at the high school by tiling blown from the eaves and the gymnasium was flooded from the heavy rain.

Damage was greater west of town, at the William Frazer home, a large tree was uprooted, tearing down a meat house and back porch. Other trees were badly broken, barns and sheds were unroofed and wagons blown away.

The house occupied by H. J. Christianson, on the J. J. Wyatt farm was unroofed and the roof carried about 300 yards. This house, long ago, was a tavern where the stage coach stopped enroute between Beardstown and Springfield.

Gurney Station, two miles west on the B. & O., was wiped out of existence when the shelter, the only building, was blown away. At the J. M. Smith farm, three corn cribs, two garages and two brooder houses were wrecked. The William Stout place suffered similar damages.

Society Entertains
The Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the Ashland M. E. church entertained the seven other societies in the group at an all day meeting at the church Thursday. Luncheon was served to about sixty in the church basement at noon. The morning and afternoon were given over to very interesting sessions at which Mrs. Max T. Smith, group leader, presided.

Veterans at Meeting
Members of the Ashland Legion post attended a meeting of the county post held in Beardstown Tuesday night. A fish supper was served and those present from Ashland were Guy Thompson, H. R. Quinley, Henry Votmuer, Harry McLaughlin, Carl Yancy, Harry Shirliff, Frank Fitzgerald, Clarence Carter, Ed Newell, Roy Smedley, Carl Altman, E. J. Hines, Joe Price, Emmett Willis, Roy Stice, Wm. Devine, Harry DeGroot, N. L. Gutman, J. H. Douglass, John Marion. The Ashland post will entertain the Cass county post at a meeting to be held in Ashland, July 18, at which time election of officers will be held.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Christian church met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Tom Shelton, who was assisted by Mrs. John Walker. Mrs. Ray Logan was leader of the program and papers were given by Mrs. Anna Conover, Mrs. Susan Cosner, and Mrs. Walker. Mrs. Charles A. Foreman sang a beautiful selection. About thirteen were present and dainty refreshments were served.

Girls' Chorus Sings
The Girls' Chorus of Ashland High school, numbering about twenty-five, participated in the Cass county music festival at Beardstown Wednesday evening. They sang four numbers, "Morning Mood," "Aria Dance," "Anitra Dance," and "In the Hall of the Mountain King."

Mrs. Charles H. Bantley and daughter, Miss Marion, of East St. Louis, visited Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Louis L. Savage.

Mrs. J. M. Peak returned Saturday

from an extended visit with her daughter, Mrs. William Leak, at Holden, West Virginia.

TIME TO FILE BONUS CLAIMS IS EXTENDED

The county Red Cross office has been notified that changes in the federal bonus law recently made by congress extends the expiration date for filing claims for adjusted service certificates another five years. The time for filing original claims expired Jan. 2, 1935, but claims may now be filed until Jan. 2, 1940.

It developed that many ex-service men did not file their claims for adjusted compensation after the bonus law was passed. They are entitled to receive 50% of the amount due them as soon as they file claims, and if the new bonus law is successful, they may receive the entire amount.

Bulk Buying means economy—

if you have the kind of refrigeration that retains the original moisture and freshness of the extra food supply. You can quickly determine the actual economy of bulk buying right now in your kitchen. Take a head of lettuce and a bunch of celery. Both are rich in natural moisture and important as summer salad materials. Remove them from your present refrigerator and look at the surface first. If a natural moisture balance has been maintained there will be no beads of sweat on the outside. This surface sweat also indicates the absence of proper circulation. Cut the head of lettuce and a stalk of celery in two. If the inside is dry and parched, the nutritive juices and flavor are gone. Moistening under a faucet will not bring them back. It is far better to preserve foods where a constant supply of moisture is circulated 5 to 7 times a minute under refrigerating temperatures that permit cells to function naturally, regulate their own supply of moisture. Thus, are the three essentials of practical food preservation combined in the modern ice cabinet.

1. SAFE TEMPERATURES
2. BALANCED MOISTURE
3. WASHED, VITALIZED AIR

See the smart new models. See what your money will buy in truly modern air conditioned refrigeration. Look into the future too—10 years from now. Will your refrigerator be a credit to your judgement or a piece of worn out machinery?

Cubs Smack Ball to Win from Boston

French Weakens in Eighth After Holding Braves To Four Runs

Boston, May 11.—(P)—The Chicago Cubs battered a Boston pitching quintet for 18 hits today to give Lefty Larry French, who failed to go the distance, his first victory of the season by the one-sided margin of 14-7.

French weakened in the eighth when, with the Cubs leading 13-4, five Tribesmen belted him for successive singles in a three-run rally. Charles Root was rushed to the rescue and he put down the Boston uprising without yielding a hit.

Every Cub, with the exception of lead-off Augie Galan, who drew three passes, and the relieving Root, hit safely. Freddy Lindstrom led the Chicago onslaught with a triple and three singles and Chuck Klein drove his second homer of the season high

Browns Spill A's Behind Jack Knott

Hurler Makes Second Start of Season and Gets Good Support

St. Louis, May 11.—(P)—Jack Knott, who usually appears in a relief role, made his second start of the season today and pitched the St. Louis Browns to a 4 to 1 victory over the Philadelphia Athletics.

The Browns took three of their runs in the fifth, aided by a queer hop that sent Melillo's grounder past Finney for a single and fumble by Warbler and Higgins. Melillo scored on Burns' fly to Cramer. Strange and Knott then went in on a single by Burnett. It was the Browns' second victory in 13 games, and ended a three-game

Table of Points

Cardinals Win Opener from Phils 15-6, but Lose Nightcap 5-2

Philadelphia, May 11.—(P)—One half of the Dean boys of St. Louis was successful today, while the other half took a beating as the Cardinals and Phillies split a doubleheader.

Jerome (Dizzy) turned in a steady hurling performance as his mates hammered out 17 hits and the Cards won the opener 15 to 6. The other Dean, Paul (Duffy), fared not so well, and despite Ducky Medwick's homer, and a 5 to 2 lacing in the nightcap.

Two home runs by Jimmy Collins featured the Cards' attack in the opener and made it easy for Dizzy Dean. In the second game, the Phils turned on Duffy in the fifth and pushed over three runs that settled the issue.

White Sox Jump to League Lead Again

John Whitehead's Three-Hit Mound Performance Features 13-3 Triumph

Chicago, May 11.—(P)—The Chicago White Sox, checked for two days by Boston, went on the warpath again today, and behind a two-hit pitching job by Silent John Whitehead who racked up his fifth straight victory of the season, pounded three Red Sox hurlers for a 13 to 3 triumph.

The victory, combined with Cleveland's defeat by the New York Yankees, returned the White Sox to first place in the American League.

Whitehead, the sensational rookie right-hander from Dallas, collared every Boston hitter except Ellsworth (Babe) Delahgen. Delahgen drove in all the Boston runs and banded out his third home run in two days along with a double that came close to being a triple.

Springfield Finishes Next And I.S.D. Third; Jerseyville Winds up in Fourth Place

Carrollton high school's undefeated Hawks raced their way to the first district track and field championship in the school's history over the Illinois College oval Saturday afternoon, piling up 284 points to win over Springfield, with 214 points. Illinois School for the Deaf with 20 points, and Jerseyville, fourth with 19 points.

Beardstown was the only other entry to get the two figure point total, scoring 144 points.

In one of the fastest meets ever completed, Carrollton won on points supplied by their runners. The Hawks registered in eight of the 14 events, and scored points in only one field event, the pole vault. It was on the fleet feet of Vernon Ballard, White-man, Vedder, Oser and Cunningham that the Hawks ran to their victory.

Not a single record fell during the onslaught, which began in the morning and went ahead almost unceasingly until mid-afternoon when only one event, the relay remained when a rainstorm blew up out of the south-west, wrecked the pole vault and high jump events, and slowed down the relay teams.

Rain Halts Game At State Hospital

Redlegs Win in Six Frames from Virden 4-2; Sporer Does Flinging

Rain shortened a baseball game at the Jacksonville State Hospital Saturday afternoon to six innings, but allowed it to proceed long enough for the Redlegs to mark up ten safe blows and a 4 to 2 victory over Virden. The Redlegs will go to Tovey Sunday in an effort to repeat their victory over the miners here.

Kalvin's timely hitting proved a big factor in the game, the Redleg fielder cracking out a pair of doubles, both times with men on base. Barnes and Carnahan contributed singles in the third inning uprisings which gave the Redlegs the lead.

Derringer Gets His First 1935 Setback

Brooklyn, May 11.—(P)—Paul Derringer, the right handed flinger of the Cincinnati Reds who was on the losing end of 21 mound decisions last year, suffered his first defeat of the 1935 season today as the Dodgers battered out a 6 to 1 victory.

Derringer was touched up for four hits, including Joe Stripp's triple, for three runs in the first inning. He steadied and pitched good ball until lifted for a pinch hitter in the eighth although Al Lopez and Linus Frey nicked him for home runs.

Pitchers Shine As Bucs, Giants Split

New York, May 11.—(P)—The Giants' perfect record at the Polo Grounds this season—nine victories and two ties without a single loss—was rudely shattered by Guy Bush and the Pirates in the first half of a doubleheader today, but the league leaders rallied behind Fred Fitzsimmons to gain an even break for the day.

With Bush flinging four-hit ball, the Pirates took the opener 4 to 1. New York rallied on the strength of Fitzsimmons' three hit hurling and won the second clash 3 to 0. Fitzsimmons, who had missed two turns on the hill because of a sore elbow, showed no sign of the injury as he spread three singles over as many different innings and issued only three walks.

Home runs played an important part in both halves of the bargain bill, played before 39,066 cash customers. Paul Waner thumped the Pirates into an early lead in the opener when he smacked his season's first boundary belt with Woody Jensen on base. Gus Mancuso's two homers were the deciding factors in the second mound duel between Fitzsimmons and Waite Hoye.

Vaughan and Foxx Lead Big Leagues

Pittsburgh Slugger Crawls Up in Percentages; Foxx Still Over .400

New York.—(P)—While the batting averages of all the National League leaders except the Pittsburgh pace setter, Arky Vaughan, dropped down toward mid-season levels during the past week, the American Leaguers showed a surprising upward tendency. Vaughan, hitting ten times in 21 trips to the plate, brought his average up nine points to .455 to take the National League lead relinquished by Frank Hogan of Boston when an injury kept him idle and cost him temporarily his status as a "regular." Mel Ott also registered a slight gain but most of the others in the senior circuit's first ten suffered big losses.

In the American League Rollie Hemsey of St. Louis dropped from first place to third but his average went down only five points to .385. Meanwhile Jimmie Foxx and Bob Johnson of the Athletics sailed past him with gains of 15 and 6 points, respectively. Foxx hit safely eight times in 18 attempts to hoist his average to .403 after yesterday's games, while Johnson reached 392 with seven blows in 17 times up.

Kenneth Chenoweth Wins in Singles; Two Doubles Teams Win

Illinois College won three of the four qualifying places in the Illinois College conference district tennis tournament held here Saturday. Kenneth Chenoweth defeated the St. Louis champion, England, in three sets to win a singles place while two doubles teams turned back two doubles teams from Carbondale.

Southern Teachers and Illinois College were the only schools represented in the meet. Chenoweth defeated England 6-6, 6-3, 6-0 to win his place in the singles. Pavreau, Carbondale, defeated the Illinois flumber one player, Jack Moriarty, 6-6, 6-4 to qualify for the other singles position.

Clark and Mitchell, Illinois, defeated England and Hall, of Southern Teachers, 6-2, 12-10 to win their way to the state meet, and Evers and Moriarty won from Pavreau and Seyfert, Southern, 3-6, 7-5, 6-4.

The state finals will be held in Peoria next week end.

Illinois Swamps Northwestern

Evanston, Ill., May 11.—(P)—Hale Swanson held Northwestern to five hits today and Illinois backed him up with a 14-hit assault on two Northwestern hurlers to swamp the Wildcats, 12 to 2, in a Western Conference game.

Swanson accounted for his own and Illinois' sixth victory of the Big Ten season. The Illini remained in second place with their six wins in eight games.

Al Pedersen, who started for Northwestern, yielded 10 hits in six innings. He kept the hits fairly well spread out, but numerous Northwestern errors helped Illinois to runs. Roy Kimbell gave up four hits and also suffered poor support.

Lewis and Henry led the Illinois assault each hitting safely three times in five times at bat.

Lazzeri Gets Pair of Homers to Win

Cleveland, May 11.—(P)—Tony Lazzeri, newly advanced to the post of cleanup hitter for the Yankees smashed out two home runs today to give the Yankees a 10 to 4 victory over the Indians and shove Cleveland down into second place in the American league standings.

Lazzeri opened the scoring with a homer in the second and finished it in the ninth by smashing another after Dennis Galehouse had loaded the bases. Johnny Allen turned in some flashy hurling for the Yanks although touched for eleven hits. He struck out eleven, seven in the first four innings.

Stadium Loses Cash On Lightweight Go

Less Than 3,000 People See Locatelli Maul Joe Ghnoully

Chicago.—(P)—The Chicago stadium didn't have a great deal in the way of lightweight championship timber today in return for a box-office loss of around $7,000.

A crowd of less than 3,000 paid $4.761 last night to watch Cleo Locatelli of Italy maul out a ten-round decision victory over Joe Ghnoully of St. Louis in the stadium's opening elimination bout to locate a successor to Barney Ross as 135-pound ruler, as far as Illinois is concerned.

The Illinois State Athletic commission will not accept Tony Canzonero, who regained recognition as champion by outpointing Lou Ambers at New York last night.

In the other lightweight number on the program, Leonard Del Genio, a New York youngster, knocked out Babe Daniels of Minneapolis in the sixth round of what was slated to go ten rounds. Del Genio floored Daniels twice before putting him away.

Senators Wallop Tigers 10 to 7

Detroit, May 11.—(P)—Jo-Jo White's steal of home in the ninth for the tying run only prolonged defeat for the Tigers as Washington came thru in the twelfth inning today to win, 10 to 7.

With Thursday's game rained out, the Senators evened the series count by their win today. Russell, who succeeded Burke on the mound for Washington with two on base and one out in the ninth, got credit for the victory.

The Tigers paraded four members of the pitching staff through the box before the game was over. Clyde Hatter, southpaw rookie, started but retired in the middle of the seventh after he had walked three Senators, and Auker took over the task. Auker gave way in the eighth to Hossett, and Fischer finished the game, getting credit for the loss.

Will Play 36 Holes of Medal Play Golf for State College Crown

Decatur, Ill.—State Normal, Knox, Charleston Teachers, Millikin, Macomb Teachers and others of the state group will compete here in the conference golf meet Saturday, May 18. Competition will be thirty-six holes medal play. Each college may enter four men, but only three will be permitted to compete. A gold medal will be awarded the individual champion. A silver medal goes to the second place winner and a bronze medal will be given to the third place winner.

Play will be over the Decatur Country club course. Pairings will be made by lot, first from the sixteen low handicap players and second from the remaining group. The first round will start at 7:45 a. m. and the second round at 12:30 p. m.

Durwood Boone of State Normal, co-champion in individual play last year, is back to defend the crown. Jack Wright of Millikin, who tied with Boone is not in school. Both shot 36 holes totals of 147 to tie for the title last year. Knox college defends the team championship.

The faculty golf will be held in conjunction with the student championship rounds. Professor Oakland of DeKalb Teachers won the 1934 title with a 36-hole total of 156. Prof. Wagner of Macomb Teachers was second with a 161. Other scores soared to unbelievable heights.

Running his usual style, Omaha was slow to get under for a $2 win mutual while his owner, New York banker and chairman of the stewards of the jockey club, received $25,325. The victory boosted Omaha's total for the year to $66,600 and for two years of racing to $70,450.

The disappointment of the race was Warren Wright's Nellie Flag, the beaten favorite in the Derby. She was fourth at the Downs, but today with no excuse of being bumped, could do no better than seventh in an attempt to duplicate the 1924 triumph of her mother, Nellie Morse. Only E. R. Steer Values Slump; Market Unbalanced

Chicago, May 11.—(P)—Expansion in cattle supplies this week was not balanced by a sufficient improvement in the dressed trade to stabilize the market and steer values slumped. Increased volume of live mutton mar-ketings is purely local and was more than offset by shrinkage in the principal outside markets and a brisk demand sent prices skyrocketing 85 to $1.00 and more on slaughtered lambs. Underweight hogs gained 10 cents, pigs 15 to 25 cents while heavier animals were unchanged, producing a resultant average advance of 5 cents for the week.

covering part of the mid-week losses ruled 25 to 50 cents under last week's final quotations. Prime beefs, setting a peak of $16.15, closed weak to 25 cents lower. Common and medium grade beefs which got country competition from feeder buyers finished steady to strong and she stock made net gains. Vealers were marked up as high as $1.00.

The markets were nominal today.

With hog holding steady in a few sales. The quotable top was $8.25. Estimated holdover was 1,000. The Friday average was $8.93. Receipts were 4,000, including 3,500 direct. Seven thousand sheep were received, 500 cattle and 200 calves.

While lambs soared, aged sheep ruled weak to 15 cents or more lower. The closing tops for lambs were the highest since early March with best woolskins selling at $9.00 and clipped offerings at $8.00.

Summer Sweethearts

By Mabel McElliot © 1935, NEA Service, Inc.

"Everybody thinks I've forgotten Gibbs," Zoe said, "but I can't—I just can't. Kay, I've got to see him!"

"But my car's here," she protested, after deliberation. "I'll have to stop by again and pick it up."

Would Michael think she was making excuses to see him? Men were so terribly conceited. After the other day when he had so rudely seized her wrist and spoken so sharply, when they were taking shelter from the storm in that way-side cabin, she scarcely knew what to think of Michael.

Zoe plotted the little car skillfully up the hill, road winding westward in a zig-zag pattern away from Interoak. From the rise you could look back and see the village, lying sleepy in the morning haze, and a line of blue beyond that marked Long Island Sound.

Zoe ran the car into the shadow of a pine-orchard and shut off the engine.

"Nice up here!" Katharine agreed. There were farms on either side of the River Road; unpainted barns and rail fences hemming in fields of clover and rows of sprouting corn. Some day, in the not far distant future, all this would be taken over by a suburban development company. There would be Moorish villas and golf tees where all was rustic simplicity now.

"I love it," Katharine agreed. There were farms on either side of the River Road; unpainted barns and rail fences hemming in fields of clover and rows of sprouting corn. Some day, in the not far distant future, all this would be taken over by a suburban development company. There would be Moorish villas and golf tees where all was rustic simplicity now.

"I never heard anything so ridiculous," Katharine said.

"Well, honestly, Kay," cried Zoe, nettled in her turn, "anybody'd think falling in love was a disgrace."

"Well, leave me out of it, won't you?" Katharine said with cool dignity.

"I CAN'T. You're one of the blooming human race," Zoe cried, with a peal of laughter. All at once both girls were restored to good humor.

"There, that's better!" cried Zoe. "Now, can you ride over to the Ridge and back? It'll only take 15 minutes. I want to talk to you."

"All right," Katharine agreed, ashamed of her earlier flare of temper. There was just no use flashing out at Zoe. She was the most amiable person in the world, if a trifle silly.

girl face taking on lines of intensity. "Kay, I've got to see him."

"He—he's away," Katharine murmured, inadequately. "I know it. He's got to come back—or else I'm going to him."

"Oh, you can't do that," Katharine protested. What a mess this was!

Zoe began to cry. She cried prettily; she didn't twist or screw her features up as so many women do. She just sat quietly and let the large, crystal drops gather and fall, touching them every now and then with the folds of the now delicately pleated handkerchief.

Katharine felt a surge of sympathy. "Oh, do stop that!" she said crossly. "Gibbs is almost 40 and he'll be fat in no time at all. And you know well enough he's had heaps of affairs—with married women, too. No wonder your mother is against him! She has a perfect right to be."

"But I love him," Zoe protested, blue eyes swimming, red lips pouting. "You just won't understand. You're so—so hard about it, Kay. Just wait till you fall . .

SCOT POETRY IS DISCUSSED AT CLUB MEET

Mrs. Pricer is Speaker at Annual May Luncheon Here Saturday

In an address upon the poetry of Scotland, Mrs. Laura Pricer, of Normal, Ill., charmed her large audience Saturday afternoon at the annual May luncheon of the Jacksonville Women's club held at the Colonial Inn.

The president, Mrs. J. Marshall Miller, presided at the speaker's table where were seated the guest speakers, Mrs. Pricer, Mrs. W. A. Schimmel, of Pittsfield, past president of the district, Mrs. Roy Davenport, county president, and Mrs. T. J. Pinner, past district president, other officers and guests.

The members were seated at small tables, with a hostess at each. Lovely bouquets of roses, tulips and lilies of the valley were arranged as center pieces on the tables.

At the conclusion of the luncheon Mrs. Miller presented Miss Charlotte Sieber, music chairman, who announced a musical program which included a group of piano number by Hugh Beggs, of the faculty of MacMurray College. The selections were: Etude E major, Chopin; Flat 3 minor, Chopin; Ballade A flat, Chopin.

Mrs. Herbert Capps, program chairman, introduced a pleasing number, giving a May Day touch to the afternoon, which was a tap dance by Mary Louise and Juanita Baldwin.

Mrs. J. Marshall Miller who graciously expressed her appreciation of the splendid co-operation of the officers, chairmen and members during the past year, introduced Mrs. M. S. Zachary, the newly elected president, as an officer well-qualified to maintain the high standards of the organization.

As speaker of the afternoon Mrs. Pricer in her talk vividly brought to the minds of all present the stirring ballads and poetry of Robert Burns and Sir Walter Scott, whom she described as the two outstanding poets of Scotland. "Burns and Scott breathe the very life of the nation. The first ballads of Scotland were popular ballads, sincere and primitive, the national poetry of the country, whether written by a group or an individual is a disputed point. We now favor the view that the individual is the author. The ballad deals with subjects already known."

Mrs. Pricer illustrated her remarks by giving passages from the poems. She read Sir Patrick Spence, telling of the value of this and other ballads to the origin of the nation, since the folk songs tell what the people liked their joys and sorrows, what they really are.

In illustration of the 18th century, Thomas Percy's, "Barbara Allen," was read by Mrs. Pricer. She told of the life of Robert Burns, his life and character, giving "The Cotter's Saturday Night," "To a Mouse," "Green Grow the Rashes," showing the spirit of the poet, who is read and quoted universally.

Mrs. Pricer spoke of Scott as a great contrast in life and character. She quoted with great beauty of expression from "The Lady of the Lake" and "Marmion," showing the grandeur of the heroic poetry. She ended her program with a charming discussion of Stevenson and his poetry.

The hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. A. B. Williamson, general chairman, Mrs. T. M. Smith, Mrs. E. D. Herald, Mrs. F. W. Bolton, Mrs. John Merrigan, Miss Charlotte Sieber, Mrs. R. O. Boffe, Mrs. Ollie Rimbey, Miss Clara Cobb, Mrs. R. C. Henley.

JUDGE THOMSON IS FRANKLIN SPEAKER

A large crowd greeted the eighth grade graduating class in Franklin Friday evening. The class consisted of nine members, five boys and four girls. The highest grades were made by James Seymour, Kathleen Clayton can him a close race and took off second honors.

Several musical numbers were given including those given by members of the graduating class as well as by the MacMurray College Trio.

Judge Wm. E. Thomson gave the address of the evening. He took as his subject "Discovery" and showed how the graduates, starting out in life, had before them interesting territory to explore and vast fields of discoveries awaiting them. This was applied to the things of everyday life—in the home, the yards, the gardens, the fields, the villages. He illustrated freely with events in the life of Christopher Columbus.

Certificates of graduation were presented by Victor H. Sheppard, county superintendent. He also presented to Carl Kerstein, principal of the grade schools of Franklin, on behalf of the pupils and other grade teachers, a good-will token in the form of a valuable fountain pen. Mr. Kerstein has been elected superintendent of schools of Macoupin county and will take up his office next August. He has been teaching at Franklin for two years and the patrons of the school part with him with regret.

PLAN COOKING SCHOOL HERE THIS MONTH

"Foods on Parade" to Be Staged in City May 27-31

Foods on Parade, a new kind of cooking school which is as colorful as a big motion picture production, and as helpful as a college course, is to be held in a limited number of the largest cities of the United States during the current season.

The Journal and Courier are most fortunate in securing this big cooking school as a service to their women readers. Foods on Parade is to be held in a limited number of the largest cities of the United States during the current season.

Though Foods on Parade will be the most elaborately produced cooking school that has ever been held in Jacksonville, it will also be the most practical. The Journal and Courier know that every housewife is constantly on the alert for new dishes to serve her family, new ideas for entertaining her friends, new marketing information which will help her in running her household wisely and economically. We are therefore pleased to announce that Miss Lucile Harris will conduct our cooking school, and be mistress of ceremonies at Foods on Parade.

Miss Harris comes well equipped to bring homemaking help to the Journal and Courier women readers. She is one of the most expert cooks in the country, versed not only in a knowledge of foods from the practical side, but with a background of education and experience which gives her an understanding of cookery problems from the scientific side. In her lectures she has the happy faculty of being able to tell women the "why" of certain phases of cookery, as well as the "how."

Incidentally, women who attend this cooking school may depend on it that the cooking and foods information given them by Miss Harris is the most up-to-date and authentic available. Miss Harris is a member of the staff of the National Live Stock and Meat Board, an educational and research organization which is in close touch with universities and colleges, experimental and research laboratories, and practical housewives. New information on all phases of cookery, dietetics and meal planning is available to her, and she will be able to give Jacksonville women a great deal of helpful instruction.

Miss Harris is especially well equipped to give instruction on meat cookery. Through experimental work carried on during the past five years, it has been found that old methods of cooking meat are not the best, after all. Visitors to the meat exhibits in the Century of Progress in Chicago the past two years will recall seeing exhibits of cooking meats at different temperatures—the new ways and the old ways—and will recall that their old theories of "cooking with high heat" and so forth were wrong. In Foods on Parade, Miss Harris will teach Jacksonville women how to become really good meat cooks.

Winchester, May 11.—Rev. A. E. Ashton, pastor of the M. E. Church of Bluff Springs, Ill., addressed the May meeting of the Winchester Brotherhood at dinner given at the Christian Church yesterday evening. Rev. Ashton discussed his experiences as a missionary in India, where he served for more than 25 years. He gave a most interesting and enlightening discussion of that vast eastern empire with which he is so very familiar. At the close of his address Rev. Ashton answered questions propounded by the group.

There were about seventy persons in attendance at the meeting which was a ladies' night for the organization. The dinner was served in the Sunday School room of the church because of the water which had flooded the basement dining room. Following the meal the meeting reconvened in the auditorium of the church where President, Norbert L. Hutches, presided over a short business meeting and election of officers for next year.
